HIGHLIGHTS IN CUBS HISTORY

IN 122 NATIONAL LEAGUE SEASONS, THE CUBS HAVE PLAYED 17,978 GAMES AND HAVE WON 9,201 (155 WERE TIED) — BOTH MAJOR LEAGUE RECORDS

1876: The first game in the history of the Chicago National League franchise took place April 25, as Al Spalding pitched the first N.L. shutout in the Chicago White Stockings' 4-0 win at Louisville ... centerfielder Paul Hines scored the first run on a throwing error in the 2nd inning.

- the first home run in N.L. history was hit by the White Stockings' Ross Barnes on May 2 in a 15-9 victory in Cincinnati ... the inside-the-park homer was one of only 40 roundtrippers hit during the N.L.'s initial season.
- the creation of the N.L. was credited largely to William A. Hulbert, who held the dual role of league president and Chicago president until his death in 1882 ... with the assistance of Albert G. Spalding, Chicago's first manager, Hulbert drafted the N.L. constitution and by-laws in 1875.
- of the eight original charter members of the N.L., only the Cubs have operated continuously in the same city.

1906: The Chicago club set all-time major league records for wins in a season and winning percentage ... the team won 116 games (against 36 losses) for a .763 winning percentage.

1907: "Cubs" was officially adopted as the nickname of the team ... the Cubs then went on to win their first world championship in a 4-game sweep of Detroit.

1908: The Cubs were World Series champions for the second straight year, defeating Detroit 4 games to 1.

1916: The Cubs moved into Weeghman Park (now known as Wrigley Field).

1921: William Wrigley Jr. became the Cubs' majority stockholder.

- Wrigley's involvement with the team began in 1916, when a 10-man syndicate — led by Charles Weeghman — purchased the club from Charles Taft ... in 1919, Wrigley purchased Weeghman's shares to become majority owner.
- after Wrigley's death in 1932, his interest passed to his son, Philip K. Wrigley ... upon Philip's death in 1977, principal interest in the ballclub was left to his son, William Wrigley.
- the sale of the club to Tribune Company in 1981 ended the longest continuous operation of a franchise by the same family in one city.

THE HISTORY OF WRIGLEY FIELD

THE FRIENDLY CONFINES WILL BE PLAYING HOST TO MAJOR LEAGUE BASEBALL FOR THE 85TH SEASON IN 1998

Built in 1914, Wrigley Field is the third-oldest ballpark in the major leagues behind Detroit's Tiger Stadium (1912) and Boston's Fenway Park (1912).

Originally known as Weeghman Park, Wrigley Field was built on the grounds once occupied by a seminary.

- Weeghman Park was the home of Chicago's entry in the Federal League and was the property of Charles H. Weeghman, a wealthy restaurant-chain owner ... the club was known as both the Federals and the Whales.
- the cost of building Weeghman Park, which had a seating capacity of 14,000, was estimated at $250,000 ... the infield and outfield consisted of more than 4,000 yards of soil and four acres of bluegrass.
- the first major league game at the ballpark took place April 23, 1914, with the Federals defeating Kansas City 9-1 ... the first homer in ballpark history was clubbed by Federals catcher Art Wilson — a 2-run shot in the 2nd inning off Kansas City's Chief Johnson.

After the Federal League folded for financial reasons following the 1915 season, Weeghman purchased the Cubs from the Taft family of Cincinnati and moved the club to the two-year-old ballpark at the corner of Clark and Addison streets.

The first National League game at the ballpark was played April 20, 1916, when the Cubs beat the Cincinnati Reds 7-6 in 11 innings ... a bear cub was in attendance at the game.

- the park became known as Cubs Park in 1920 after the Wrigley family purchased the team from Weeghman ... it was officially named Wrigley Field in 1926 in honor of William Wrigley Jr., the club's owner.

Wrigley Field has been the site of such historic moments as:

- Babe Ruth's "called shot," when Ruth allegedly pointed to a bleacher location ... Ruth then proceeded to hit Charlie Root's next pitch in that vicinity ... the home run was hit October 1, 1932, during Game 3 of the World Series.
- Gabby Hartnett's famous "Homer in the Gloamin' " September 28, 1938, vs. Pittsburgh's Mace Brown.
- the great May 2, 1917, pitching duel between Jim "Hippo" Vaughn and the Reds' Fred Toney ... both Vaughn and Toney threw no-hitters for 9.0 innings before Cincinnati's Jim Thorpe (of Olympic fame) drove in the only run in the 10th inning ... Toney finished with a no-hitter.
- Ernie Banks' 500th career home run May 12, 1970, vs. Atlanta's Pat Jarvis.
- Pete Rose's 4,191st career hit, which tied him with Ty Cobb for the most hits in baseball history ... Rose singled off Reggie Patterson September 8, 1985.

The Wrigley Field bleachers and scoreboard were constructed in 1937 when the outfield area was renovated to provide improved and expanded seating ... the original scoreboard remains intact except for a few touches of modernization, such as the electronic message board.

- the score-by-innings and the pitchers' numbers are changed by hand ... the numbers signaling batter, ball, strike and out, along with "H" and "E" to signify hit and error, are eyelets.
- no batted baseball has ever hit the centerfield scoreboard ... two balls barely missed — a homer hit onto Sheffield Avenue (right-center) by Bill Nicholson in 1948, and one hit by Roberto Clemente onto Waveland Avenue (left-center) in 1959.
- one of the traditions of Wrigley Field is the flying of a flag bearing a "W" or an "L" atop the scoreboard after a game ... a white flag with a blue "W" indicates a victory; a blue flag with a white "L" denotes a loss.

The original vines were purchased and planted by Bill Veeck in September 1937 ... Veeck strung bittersweet from the top of the wall to the bottom, then planted the ivy at the base of the wall.

- the bleacher wall is 11.5 feet high ... the basket attached to the wall was constructed in 1970.
- Ernie Banks' uniform number (14) is imprinted on the flag which flies from the leftfield foul pole ... Billy Williams' No. 26 flies from the rightfield foul pole.

In 1988, Wrigley Field became the last M.L. ballpark to add lights.

- the first night game took place August 8 against Philadelphia, but was rained out after 3 1/2 innings.
- the first official night game occurred August 9 vs. New York, when the Cubs defeated the Mets 6-4.

Wrigley Field also has been the site of numerous construction projects since Tribune Company purchased the Cubs in 1981.

- new office space was created and old offices refurbished in the administrative area behind home plate in 1981-1982, while the ticket office was built directly behind home plate in 1983.
- during the winter of 1984, a new home clubhouse was completed under the third base stands ... the visitors' clubhouse was renovated prior to the 1990 season.
- in 1989, private boxes were constructed on the mezzanine level, formerly occupied by the press box and broadcasting booths ... a press box and broadcasting booths were constructed in the upper deck directly behind home plate ... other park improvements included a food court and a permanent concession stand in the upper deck.
- following renovations in 1994 and 1995, there are now 63 private boxes.
- an elevator was added to the third base concourse in 1996.

How to Figure Baseball Statistics

Batting Average — H/AB: Hits divided by at-bats.

Slugging Percentage — TB/AB: Total number of bases divided by at-bats (single = 1 base, double = 2 bases, triple = 3 bases, home run = 4 bases).

Earned Run Average — (ERx9)/IP: Earned runs multiplied by 9, then divided by innings pitched (0.1 innings = .333, 0.2 innings = .667).

Fielding Average — (PO+A)/(PO+A+E): Putouts plus assists divided by total chances (putouts plus assists plus errors).

On-Base Percentage — (H+BB+HBP)/(AB+BB+HBP+SF): Hits plus walks plus hit-by-pitch divided by at-bats plus walks plus hit-by-pitch plus sacrifice flies.

Win-Loss Percentage: Number of games won divided by total games played.

Magic Numbers: Compute the number of games remaining, add one, then subtract the number of games ahead in the loss column of the standings of the closest opponent.

SAVE RULE

Rule 10.20 tells the official scorer to credit a pitcher with a save when he meets all three of the following conditions:

(1) He is the finishing pitcher in a game won by his club.
(2) He is not the winning pitcher.
(3) He qualifies under the following conditions:
  (a) He enters the game with a lead of no more than three runs and pitches for at least one inning, or;
  (b) He enters the game with the potential tying run either on base, at bat or on deck, or;
  (c) He pitches effectively for at least three innings.

When a relief pitcher enters a game in a save situation and departs or the game ends with the save situation no longer in effect because he has given up the lead, he is charged with a "blown save."

If the save opportunity still exists when he leaves the game, he is not charged with a save opportunity.

If the pitcher has not given up the lead when he leaves the game, though the save opportunity may no longer exist because of added runs scored by his own team, he is not charged with a save opportunity.

A consecutive-game playing streak shall be extended if a player plays one-half inning on defense, or if he completes a time at bat by reaching base or being put out. A pinch-running appearance does not extend a streak. If a player is ejected from a game by an umpire before he can comply with the requirements of this rule, his streak shall continue.

A consecutive-game hitting streak shall not be terminated if all a player's plate appearances result in a base on balls, hit batsman, defensive interference or sacrifice bunt. The streak shall end if the player has a sacrifice fly and no hit.

- fanned a career-high 10 batters in a 7.0-inning stint August 28 vs. Florida.

OH MICKEY, YOU'RE SO FINE

On September 20, 1992, at Pittsburgh's Three Rivers Stadium, Mickey Morandini became the ninth player in major league history — and the first second baseman — to turn an unassisted triple play.

In the 6th inning with runners on first and second, Morandini caught Jeff King's liner, stepped on second base to retire Andy Van Slyke, then tagged Barry Bonds coming from first.

Morandini was the first National League player to record an unassisted triple play since Cubs shortstop Jimmy Cooney turned the feat on May 30, 1927.

ABOUT HENRY ANDERSON RODRIGUEZ (GARCIA)

Henry and his wife, Patty, reside in Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic, during the off-season ... children: Henry and David.

- ❑ graduated from Liceo Republica de Paraguey High School in Santo Domingo in 1985.
- ❑ was honored with a pair of "Oh Henry!" days while playing for Montreal ... on June 24, 1996, he had 2 homers, a double and 4 RBI in the Expos' 11-3 victory over Pittsburgh — a game in which Montreal manager Felipe Alou was ejected from the contest due to the volume of "Oh Henry!" candy bars thrown on the field ... on June 22, 1997, he went 2-for-3 with a pair of doubles vs. Florida.

1997 Season

Henry led Montreal in RBI (83) during his final season with the Expos, batting .244 with 28 doubles and 26 homers.

- averaged 1 homer every 18.3 at-bats — the 10th-best ratio in the National League.
- had a pair of 2-homer games (April 29 at Wrigley Field, September 2 vs. Boston), giving him 8 career multiple-homer contests ... the April 29 Wrigley Field solo shots were his first 2 career homers at The Friendly Confines.
- hit grand slams May 7 off San Francisco's Osvaldo Fernandez and July 21 off Colorado's Darren Holmes ... the July 21 grand slam at Olympic Stadium came with 2 out in the bottom of the 9th inning to give the Expos an 8-4 win.
- hit an estimated 525-foot homer off Detroit's Brian Moehler June 15 at Olympic Stadium — with the baseball hitting the ballpark's service rim along the rightfield line ... after hitting the rim, the ball shot upward and hit the roof before striking a speaker on the way down.
- batted safely in a career-high 16 consecutive contests May 4-May 22, going 19-for-57 (.333) with 3 homers and 14 RBI ... from April 23-May 27, he hit safely in 28 of 31 contests (37-111, .333).
- had his second career 4-hit game April 13 at Colorado, going 4-for-4.
- started 124 games in leftfield and 2 at first base.
- struggled down the stretch due to a strained muscle in his right ribcage ... although he was not placed on the disabled list, he missed 19 consecutive games August 13-September 2.

Major League Career

1996: Henry had his best major league season, going to the All-Star Game and batting .276 with career highs in doubles (42), homers (36) and RBI (103) ... the homer total was a Montreal franchise record, while his 79 extra-base hits tied a club mark.

- became the first player in N.L. history to hit 20 homers before June 1 ... had 56 RBI during the opening two months of the season.
- set Montreal monthly records for homers (9 in April, 11 in May) and for RBI (27 in April) ... his 29 RBI in May tied Tim Wallach's 1987 Expos mark.
- homered in 4 straight games April 20-April 24, tying a club record.
- was selected as the league's Player of the Week for April 22-April 28 after going 12-for-33 with 4 homers and 12 RBI.
- was named to the N.L.'s All-Star team as a replacement for the injured Tony Gwynn ... pinch hit in the 2nd inning and had a run-scoring single off Cleveland's Charles Nagy.
- on August 12 against Houston, he homered in the 2nd inning off Danny Darwin ... was hit by a Darwin pitch in his next at-bat, prompting a bench-clearing brawl ... subsequently received a 4-game suspension, which he served August 16-August 19.
- when he hit his 33rd homer August 25 at San Francisco off Osvaldo Fernandez, he set the Expos' single-season roundtripper record ... Andre Dawson hit 32 homers in 1983.
- reached the 100-RBI milestone September 26 when he hit his first career grand slam (off Philadelphia's Curt Schilling).

Oh, Henry!

Henry Rodriguez combined to hit 62 homers for Montreal during the 1996-1997 campaigns — including 36 during the 1996 season. The Cubs have not had a left-handed batter hit 30 homers in one year since Rick Wilkins (30) in 1993. The last left-handed Cubs outfielder to club 30 homers in a season was Rick Monday (32) in 1976.

Rodriguez is now paired with Sammy Sosa, who has 170 roundtrippers over the last five years. The Cubs have not had two outfielders with 20-plus homers in a season since 1991, when rightfielder Andre Dawson hit 31 homers and leftfielder George Bell hit 25. The last time two Cubs outfielders reached the 30-homers mark was in 1950, when centerfielder Andy Pafko hit 36 homers and leftfielder Hank Sauer went deep 32 times.

1995: Opened the season with Los Angeles before being traded to Montreal in May ... due to a fracture in his right leg, he saw action in just 45 games.
- with the Dodgers, he recorded his first career 4-hit game May 16 at Colorado.
- after being traded to the Expos May 23, he made his Montreal debut the following day and hit a game-winning 8th-inning homer in the Expos' 3-2 victory over San Diego.
- left the Expos' June 1 contest against St. Louis with spasms in his lower right leg ... X-rays taken the next day revealed a fractured right tibia, and he was out of action until September.
- went just 5-for-30 after returning to the active roster.

1994: Spent his first full season in the majors, appearing in 104 games for Los Angeles and batting .268 with 8 homers and 49 RBI.
- was the Dodgers' Opening Day starter in leftfield and had 2 hits in the club's 4-3 win over Florida ... the next day, he had his first M.L. 2-homer contest and drove in all 3 Dodgers runs in a 3-2 victory.
- had a 3-double affair April 13 at St. Louis.
- made 62 starts in leftfield, 5 at first base and 4 in rightfield.

1993: Played in 76 games for the Dodgers and hit .222 with 8 homers and 23 RBI.
- was 4-for-15 as a pinch hitter, including a 3-run homer off the Cubs' Jose Guzman June 25 at Dodger Stadium.

1992: Saw his first big league action, appearing in 53 games.
- was recalled for the first time July 4 and made his M.L. debut the next day as a pinch hitter against Philadelphia.
- made his first M.L. start July 24 at Montreal, going 0-for-3.
- after beginning his M.L. career 0-for-14, he picked up his first hit August 1 with a single off San Diego's Andy Benes ... had a sacrifice fly later that night for his first RBI.
- had a 10-game hitting streak August 10-August 20, going 14-for-34 (.412) with his first 2 home runs.
- hit his first M.L. roundtripper August 13 at Cincinnati off Jose Rijo ... doubled in the winning run in the 9th inning to give the Dodgers a 4-3 victory and their 3,000th win since moving from Brooklyn to Los Angeles.

Minor League Highlights

1993: Henry spent half the season with Los Angeles' Albuquerque (AAA) club, batting .296.

1992: Was a Triple-A all-star at Albuquerque, hitting .304 with 14 homers and 72 RBI in 94 games.
- had 10 sacrifice flies, the highest total in the Pacific Coast League.

1991: Spent the entire campaign at Albuquerque, appearing in 121 games in his first Triple-A action ... hit .271 with 10 homers and 67 RBI.

1990: Earned Texas League Most Valuable Player honors after leading the league in homers (28) and RBI (109) at San Antonio (AA).

Connect The Dots

The Cubs' entire National League history can be spanned by the careers of as few as nine players.

Hall of Famer Cap Anson played for the club from 1876-1897. Frank Chance joined the team in 1898 and was with the Cubs until 1912. He was in turn followed by Hippo Vaughn (1913-1921), Gabby Hartnett (1922-1940), Phil Cavarretta (1935-1953) and Ernie Banks (1953-1971). Rick Reuschel's first tour of duty with the Cubs took place from 1972-1981, then Ryne Sandberg played for the team from 1982 until his first retirement in 1994.

Several players, including Sammy Sosa and Mark Grace, made their Cubs debuts prior to Sandberg's first retirement.

CROSSTOWN TRAFFIC

Entering the 1998 season, 148 players have appeared in at least 1 game for both the Cubs and the White Sox. In 1997, three Cubs players had previously been members of the White Sox (Lance Johnson, Sammy Sosa and Kevin Tapani), while three South Siders had earlier donned Cubs uniforms (Dave Martinez, Chuck McElroy and Jaime Navarro).

Others of note who played for both teams include Cubs pitching coach Phil Regan; Ken Kravec, one of the Cubs' special assistants to the general manager; and WGN broadcasters Ron Santo and Steve Stone. WGN's Harry Caray has been the play-by-play voice for both the Cubs and the Sox, while Cubs special assistant Larry Himes has served as the general manager of both clubs.

The only person to serve as manager of both the Cubs and the White Sox was Johnny Evers — of Tinker-to-Evers-to-Chance fame. Evers managed the Cubs in 1913 and 1921 and was the White Sox's skipper in 1924.

ABOUT STEPHEN CHRISTOPHER TRACHSEL (pronounced TRACK-s'l)

Steve is single and resides in Mesa, AZ, during the off-season.

- graduated from Troy High School in Fullerton, CA, in 1988.
- attended Fullerton Junior College for two years.
- pitched for Cal State-Long Beach in 1991, leading the school to a College World Series berth ... was a Baseball America second-team all-America selection that season after going 11-6 with a 2.78 ERA.
- his charitable endeavors include working with the March of Dimes and the Crohn's and Colitis Foundation.
- during his first 3 seasons with the Cubs (1993-1995), he was a stellar 13-6 on the road — but only 3-16 at Wrigley Field ... since Opening Day 1996, he has gone only 5-12 in 29 road starts — and 16-9 in 36 starts at The Friendly Confines.

1997 Season

Steve had an up-and-down campaign, finishing the season with an 8-12 record and a 4.51 ERA in 34 starts ... tied for 3rd in the National League in games started.

- in 201.1 innings, he fanned 160 batters while walking 69 ... issued 2 or fewer walks in 22 of his starts — including 6 no-walk outings.
- his 32 homers allowed led the league ... the final homer he surrendered came in the season finale September 28 at St. Louis (Mark McGwire) ... it was the 185th homer allowed by the Cubs this year, establishing the club's single-season record.
- worked into the 7th inning in 18 of his starts and pitched 6.0 innings or less in 16 starts ... when he worked into the 7th or beyond, he went 7-3 with a 2.15 ERA (30 ER/125.1 IP) ... in the other starts, he was 1-9 with an 8.41 ERA (71 ER/76.0 IP).
- in his April 24 start vs. Pittsburgh (no decision, 4-3 loss), he took a no-hitter into the 7th inning before giving up a leadoff double to Mark Johnson.
- had one of the stranger starts of his career April 29 vs. Montreal, surviving for his first win of the year in a 14-8 decision ... allowed 5 runs in the 1st inning — and 4 homers in 5.0 innings — while striking out 9 batters, which equaled his career high.
- went 7-4 with a 4.15 ERA in 19 starts at Wrigley Field (56 ER/121.1 IP) ... in 15 road starts, he was 1-8 with a 5.06 ERA (45 ER/80.0 IP).
- on September 13 at Pittsburgh, he was the winning pitcher in a 4-1 decision — his first road victory of the season ... his last road win took place in his final start away from Wrigley Field in 1996, a 4-3 victory at Pittsburgh September 23.
- was 7-for-60 at the plate with 3 doubles, 4 RBI and 11 sacrifice bunts ... recorded his fourth career 2-hit game June 14 vs. Milwaukee.

In his 34 starts, Trachsel:
- worked at least 6.0 innings in 20 starts
- allowed 2 or fewer earned runs in 14 starts
- issued 2 or fewer walks in 22 starts

The Cubs scored 142 runs in his starts (4.2 per game), including 94 while he was on the mound (2.8 per game)

Major League Career

- his ERA ranked 6th in the National League ... finished a campaign in the N.L. Top 10 in ERA for the second time.
- held opposing batters to a .235 average, the 8th-lowest mark in the league.
- due to off days in the Cubs' early season schedule, he opened the campaign at Orlando (AA) ... made 2 Double-A starts before returning to the majors April 15.
- on May 13 vs. Houston, he pitched his first M.L. shutout in a 6-0 victory ... allowed just 1 hit — a double to Brian Hunter on the game's second pitch ... surrendered just 3 walks the rest of the way.
- pitched at least 7.0 innings in 7 straight starts May 29-June 30.
- recorded his first career 4-game winning streak June 9-June 30 ... had another 4-game winning streak July 20-August 17.
- pitched his second big league shutout June 25 at Los Angeles, outdueling Hideo Nomo in a 2-0 win ... allowed 6 hits and went 2-for-3 at the plate.
- was selected to the N.L. All-Star team for the first time and worked a perfect 7th inning ... threw just 8 pitches in retiring Cleveland's Sandy Alomar Jr., Baltimore's Cal Ripken Jr. and Seattle's Alex Rodriguez.
- went 7-5 with a 2.14 ERA in 16 starts prior to the All-Star break ... his first-half ERA tied for the 3rd-lowest among Cubs starters during the past 45 years ... going back to 1953, the other top first-half ERA totals belong to Dick Ellsworth (2.02 in 1963), Larry Jackson (2.07 in 1963) and Greg Maddux (2.14 in 1988).

- worked 5.0 or fewer innings in 13 starts and pitched more than 5.0 innings 16 times ... in his starts of more than 5.0 innings, he went 7-3 with a 2.06 ERA (25 ER/109.1 IP) ... when he pitched 5.0 or fewer innings, he was 0-10 with an 11.96 ERA (66 ER/49.2 IP).
- pitched a 3-hitter May 15 at San Francisco in a 6-1 Cubs victory ... also went the distance in a 1-0 loss to San Diego June 21.
- batted .265, going 13-for-49 with 2 doubles, 4 RBI and 6 sacrifice bunts ... went 2-for-3 with 2 doubles August 4 at St. Louis.

- was 8th in the N.L. in ERA ... held opponents to a .242 batting average, the 9th-lowest mark in the league.
- led M.L. rookies in victories and innings pitched (146.0) and ranked 2nd in ERA and strikeouts (108).
- worked at least 7.0 innings in 12 starts and at least 8.0 innings 7 times ... in his starts of at least 7.0 innings, he went 7-3 with a 1.94 ERA (20 ER/92.2 IP).
- earned his first M.L. win April 8 at Montreal, working 7.1 scoreless innings in a 4-0 victory.

THE 0-14 START: With their 4-3 victory April 20 in Game 2 of a doubleheader at New York, the Cubs finally broke into the win column for the first time in 1997 ... they opened the campaign 0-14.

- the 1884 Detroit club (known as both the Wolverines and the Detroits) had held the N.L. mark, opening the campaign 0-11 ... the modern-day N.L. mark had been held by the 1988 Atlanta Braves (0-10 start).
- the major league record for losses at the start of a season is 21, set by Baltimore at the beginning of the 1988 season.
- during the Cubs' previous 121 campaigns, their worst season start had been 0-7 in 1962.
- the Cubs' 14-game losing streak also established a team record ... the previous mark of 13 games was reached three times.

CIRCLING THE BASES: On May 26 at Pittsburgh, Sammy Sosa hit the first inside-the-park homer of his major league career in the top of the 6th inning.

- just moments later, the Pirates' Tony Womack then had an inside-the-park homer of his own ... it was the first time in almost 11 years that 2 inside-the-park homers were hit in the same game (October 4, 1986 — both by Minnesota's Greg Gagne).
- the last time 2 inside-the-park homers were hit in a National League game took place June 18, 1976, when St. Louis' Lou Brock and Hector Cruz both circled the bases at Busch Stadium ... both homers were hit off San Diego's Randy Jones.
- the last time 2 inside-the-park homers were hit in the same inning occurred August 27, 1977, when Texas played the New York Yankees at Yankee Stadium ... in the 7th inning, Texas' Toby Harrah and Bump Wills hit back-to-back inside-the-park homers on consecutive pitches thrown by the Yankees' Kenny Clay.

INTERLEAGUE ACTION: The Cubs went 9-6 during the historic first season of interleague play.

- the Cubs went 2-1 against Milwaukee and Minnesota and 1-2 at the White Sox and Cleveland ... the Cubs swept Kansas City in a 3-game set June 30-July 2, their first 3-game sweep of any club since September 1995.

TRIPLE PLAYS AND TRIPLES: On May 10 at San Francisco, the Cubs turned their first triple play since July 9, 1986 ... in the 5th inning, the Giants' Stan Javier faced Amaury Telemaco with Kirk Rueter on second base and Darryl Hamilton on first ... Javier flied to short centerfield, with umpire Bob Davidson invoking the infield-fly rule ... the ball dropped in, and both runners attempted to advance — and were thrown out (Brian McRae to Jose Hernandez to Ryne Sandberg).

- the Cubs had 4 triples in their May 15 victory over San Diego (Jose Hernandez in the 4th inning; Brian McRae, Doug Glanville and Sammy Sosa in the 7th) ... it was the Cubs' first 4-triple contest since April 28, 1968, against Houston at Wrigley Field, when Lou Johnson, Don Kessinger, Billy Williams and Adolfo Phillips all had three-base hits in the contest.

Pinch Hitters Scoring Rule

A player shall be considered a pinch hitter only if he enters the game as a substitute batter and then only on his first time at bat, which must be before he becomes a fielder. If the team bats around and a pinch hitter comes up a second time in the inning in which he first appeared, he will not be considered a pinch hitter during that second time up.

Left Out

The Cubs went from September 29, 1993 (Greg Hibbard), through April 1, 1997 (Terry Mulholland), without utilizing a left-handed starting pitcher. The 421-game stretch was a 20th-century club mark for consecutive games started by right-handers.

The last time more than one left-hander started for the Cubs in a season was in 1992, when Danny Jackson started 19 games and Ken Patterson and Dennis Rasmussen each started once.

The last time two southpaws were in the starting rotation at the same time was in 1987 (Steve Trout and Jamie Moyer).

Inside-the-Park Homers

On May 26, 1997, Sammy Sosa hit an inside-the-park home run off Pittsburgh's Francisco Cordova at Three Rivers Stadium — the first hit by a Cub since Chico Walker on August 18, 1991, at San Francisco. Just moments later, the Pirates' Tony Womack hit an inside-the-park homer of his own, marking the first time in almost 11 years that 2 inside-the-park homers were hit in the same game (October 4, 1986 — both by Minnesota's Greg Gagne).

Here are the Cubs' inside-the-park homer records:

Career leader (since 1900): 18, Wildfire Schulte
Single-season: 6, Tommy Leach (1913); Cy Williams (1915)
Game: 2, Hugh Duffy (August 9, 1889, vs. Boston Braves); Topsy Hartsel (August 5, 1901, at Cincinnati)
Back-to-Back: Eddie Waitkus and Marv Rickert, June 23, 1946 at New York Giants

In Search of a Grand Slam

Cubs batters did not hit a grand slam in 1997, marking the first time they did not hit a bases-clearing roundtripper in a non-strike-shortened season since 1982.

The last Cub to hit a grand slam was Ryne Sandberg, on August 8, 1996, off Montreal's Barry Manuel.

Turning Three

The Cubs turned their last triple play on May 10, 1997, at San Francisco. In the 5th inning, the Giants' Stan Javier faced Amaury Telemaco with Kirk Rueter on second base and Darryl Hamilton on first. Javier flied to short centerfield, with umpire Bob Davidson invoking the infield-fly rule. The ball dropped in, and both baserunners were thrown out attempting to advance (Brian McRae to Jose Hernandez to Ryne Sandberg).

1972 Milt Pappas, September 2, vs. Padres at Wrigley Field, won 8-0.

Against the Cubs

1903 Philadelphia's Chic Fraser, September 18, at West Side Grounds, second game of doubleheader, won 10-0.
1905 New York's Christy Mathewson, June 13, at West Side Grounds, won 1-0.

Note: Koufax fanned 14 in his perfect game. Cubs pitcher Bob Hendley allowed just 1 hit, and the run was unearned.

5,000-Plus Games and Counting

Entering the 1998 season, the Cubs had played 5,072 games since they were no-hit by Sandy Koufax in 1965 — a span of just over 32 years.

The major league record for consecutive seasons without being no-hit is 40, set by St. Louis from 1920-1959.

Since Koufax's perfect game, the Cubs have had 16 one-hitters tossed against them, with the last one occurring April 10, 1997 (Florida's Alex Fernandez at Wrigley Field).

The Cubs have played 3,950 contests since Milt Pappas' near-perfect game in 1972. Over that stretch, Cubs pitchers have hurled 11 one-hitters, with the last one taking place September 16, 1997 (Kevin Tapani vs. Cincinnati).

JUNE FREE AGENT AMATEUR DRAFT

The Cubs selected 58 players in the 1997 Major League Baseball amateur draft. The Cubs signed 23 of their selections, including all top 10 picks and 16 of the top 20. In 1996, the Cubs signed their top 10 picks and 15 of the top 20.

Major League clubs meet each June for the purpose of drafting free agent player talent. Selection of a free agent entitles the club to exclusive right of negotiation with that player from the date of his selection until 10 days prior to the next draft. Clubs select free agents and previous draftees who had not signed contracts but had instead enrolled in four-year colleges and since had either completed their junior years or become 21 years of age.

NEW HOHOKAM PARK

The Cubs began play at the new HoHoKam Park in 1997. Construction on the new ballpark, along with the remodeling of the Fitch Park practice facility, took place following the conclusion of the 1996 spring campaign.

New HoHoKam Park has a seating capacity of 12,575. There are 8,000 fixed seats and 2,000 bleacher seats to go with an outfield lawn seating capacity of 2,575.

The stadium dimensions are: 340 feet down the leftfield line
350 feet down the rightfield line
410 feet to straight-away centerfield
390 feet to the power alleys

The batter's eye in centerfield is 80 feet wide by 40 feet high. The outfield fence is 15 feet, 4 inches high.

New HoHoKam Park also has a practice field, a practice infield, four batting tunnels, bi-level bullpens in right-centerfield and a 13,955-square foot clubhouse. The facility, which includes paved and grass parking for 3,000 cars, was built on a 48.45-acre site.

The new Fitch Park practice complex was built on a 31-acre lot. Fitch Park has four practice fields, one practice infield and a 29,733-square foot clubhouse with lockers for 200 players and 36 coaches.
